

Good news for your wallet

Children aged 11 or younger can now get around the city for free at all times if accompanied by an adult.

And that's not all! We're also giving students a 40% discount on monthly passes. That's totally bussssss!

For details and terms and conditions, visit STLaval.ca

CYCLOBUS: There's still time!

Bike racks are available on all our buses between 6:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. until October 31.

If you want to travel farther or don't feel like riding in the rain, all you have to do is load your bike onto the rack and continue your trip.

REM TRAVEL INFO

We're now operating a shuttle bus service on route 713 departing from Sainte-Dorothée station to better serve residents of western Laval.

The express shuttle bus stops at the new park-and-ride lot on Avenue des Bois and then proceeds along Boulevard Chomedey toward Côte-Vertu metro station.

New service: STL Compagnon

Sophie is different. But today, she's taking the bus like everyone else.

Thanks to the new STL Compagnon program, customers with special needs can now take public transit alone because we're there for them every step of the way.

Are you a student? Be sure to renew your OPUS card

To qualify for discounted transit fares, you must renew your OPUS card with photo ID by October 31.

Important: OPUS cards are issued and renewed at ticket offices by appointment only.
