

COVID-19 We're closely following the situation

Our teams are working hard to keep providing you with the best service possible in the current situation.

For now, the STL will keep serving its whole network per the usual schedules. Depending on how the situation evolves, some trips may have to be cancelled at the last minute without notice.

We love good news!

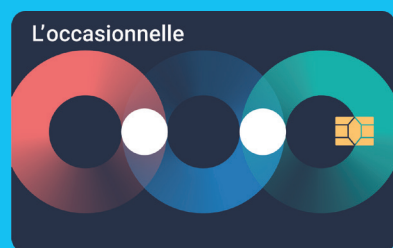

Do you now only travel occasionally on our network?

Here's something to make your life easier: payment by credit card, which is already available on some routes, will soon be available at all times on all our buses.

Even if you don't have a transit fare on hand, you can take the bus anytime, anywhere in Laval, by using this quick payment method.

Psst!

Do you need to take a bus and metro or train combo to travel between Laval, Montréal and the urban agglomeration of Longueuil?

The 10-trip All Modes AB fare pass is ideal!

Ice storm? Snowstorm?

Winter precipitation can impede the flow of our vehicles during the day and sometimes even in the following days.

Although we make every effort to mitigate the impact of bad weather on our service, we are not exempt from disruptions on our network.

Do you know the five tips for being prepared when the weather turns nasty?
