

Mystery riders wanted

Interested in evaluating the STL experience aboard our buses? Join our roster of mystery riders and get paid for your feedback. It's our way of saying thanks for helping us improve our services.

To sign up, by November 14, 2018:
stl.laval.qc.ca/mystery

Free if you're 65 or over

Laval residents, commute for free anywhere across the entire STL network with the HORIZON 65+ pass.

To obtain your pass, go to one of the two metropolitan ticket offices in Laval (Cartier or Montmorency terminus), and bring along one piece of ID showing your age, a proof of residence and $15.

To learn more, visit www.stl.laval.qc.ca/en/seniors-zone

Connecting with the Deux-Montagnes train line

Given the changes to the Deux-Montagnes train schedule, the STL has upped the frequency of its weekday bus service on routes 26, 76 and 402 to facilitate train connections.

To learn more:
stl.laval.qc.ca/rem-en

Join the STL team

We are currently hiring for numerous bus driver positions.

Apply today by visiting our website Career page and learning about the positions' requirements and benefits.

stl.laval.qc.ca/en/careers

ORIGIN- DESTINATION SURVEY UNDERWAY

Until December 22, the ARTM will be contacting 77,000 households in the metropolitan area to conduct the Origin-Destination Survey. This survey has been carried out every five years since 1970. It is used to adapt transit policies and projects to the needs of the population.

Find out more at
artm.quebec/eod