

This Spring Break, do it all

The free 360 shuttle will run all 7 days of Spring Break Week, from March 2 through 10. Take it to go to Centropolis for a bite, CF Carrefour Laval to shop for summer clothes, the Cosmodome for some space travel, and so much more. Departures every 20 minutes from the Montmorency terminal.

Route and schedule:
navette360.com

Let's talk mobility!

Interested in mobility in the Greater Montreal Area? Want to join the conversation on sustainable mobility and public transit? Check out the ARTM's new interactive platform for an overview of mobility in the Greater Montreal Area.

Your comments are welcome in preparation for public consultations scheduled for June 2019.

talkmobility.quebec

During Spring Break,
children will be able to ride for

free

from March 2 to 10
on our regular network,
thanks to our family fare.

Full-fare paying riders will be entitled to travel with up to five children ages
11 or younger.

IT'S A GREAT DEAL!
stl.laval.qc.ca/promos

Join an inspiring team!

We're growing and currently hiring for numerous bus driver and heavy-duty mechanic positions, as well as management positions.

Apply today by visiting our website Career page and learning about the positions' requirements and benefits.

stl.laval.qc.ca/en/careers

What time is the next bus?

Planning your commute is easier than ever. Get the upcoming arrival times of your bus simply by texting your bus stop number to 511785. You can find the number in the bottom right corner of the bus stop sign, and on our website.

stl.laval.qc.ca/texto

* Data usage charges from your telecommunications provider may apply. Contact your provider to find out more.