

Out of the ordinary news

It pays to plan ahead!

Students: renew your photo OPUS card before October 31. You'll avoid the lineups and enjoy a reduced fare.

To find out if you're eligible:
stlaval.ca/students

GOOD TO KNOW

Cyclobus: It's still on!

The bike racks on the front of our buses aren't coming off until October 31. To cover longer distances or if it starts raining, simply load your bike onto the rack at the front of the bus, and carry on with your trip.

How does it work?

stlaval.ca/cyclobus-en

NETWORK NEWS

PIE-IX BRT: Two new stops for buses 52 and 252

On September 3, two new stops were added for buses 52 and 252. They are located at the PIE-IX BRT Amos terminal, in Montréal.

Questions? Call our Customer Contact Centre at 450 688-6520.

Move and win with MTL Trajet

Interested in having a hand in planning the city's transportation network? You can thanks to the MTL Trajet app.

Record all your commutes between now and October 20, regardless of transportation mode, for a chance to win several prizes.

To learn more:

ville.montreal.qc.ca/mtltrajet/en

OUR TEAM

Join a team that is out of the ordinary

Exciting things are happening at the STL, which is why we are currently hiring for numerous positions!

Visit our website Career page to learn about the many benefits the STL provides.

stlaval.ca/careers